SHACKLEFORD WINS.

The Democratic Convention to nominate a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Court of Appeals, held at Frankfort last week, nominated Sam J. Shackelford, of Lexington, on the 10th ballot.

Mr. Shackelford is a splendid gentleman, a good leader and organizer, and thoroughly qualified to fill the office. He will, no doubt, be elected by a large majority.

Democratic Platform.

The following platform was adopted by the Democratic State Convention at Frankfort last week:

Resolved, That we hereby reaffirm our faith in the principles set forth and enunciated in the platform adopted by the Democratic party in the national convention held at Chicago in 1904.

Second, That the principles enunciated in the platform of the Democratic party at Chicago in 1904 are the basis of our platform.

Third, We endorse the platform of the Democratic party for the presidency in the last election.

We condemn the action of the Democratic party in the last election, and we approve it just and fair to all parties and all interests of our country.

Fourth, We condemn the dishonest and corrupt administration of the present State administration.

It has resulted in disaster to the people of this State, and it has resulted in the loss of the State to the Democratic party.

It is our duty to bring about a change in the administration of this State, and we will do so.

We will bring about a change in the administration of this State, and we will do so.

We will bring about a change in the administration of this State, and we will do so.
